Charny Karpousis Altieri & Donoian, P.A. Partner Publishes An Overview of Case Law on Parental Alienation in New Jersey Family Lawyer

July 23, 2018 – Marlton, NJ – Charny Karpousis Altieri & Donoian, P.A. partner Michelle Altieri has published an in depth article entitled “Parental Alienation: An Overview of the Available Case Law” in the June 2018 issue of New Jersey Family Lawyer. In this article, she discusses issues related to parental alienation and provides a synopsis of judicial opinions on the subject as a means to provide family law practitioners guidance on the law in this area.

An executive committee member of the New Jersey State Bar Association (NJSBA) Family Law Section, Ms. Altieri explains in this article, “The goal is to help other attorneys recognize the issues that arise with claims of parental alienation, craft arguments to be advanced on a client’s behalf, and formulate approaches to resolve cases with these toxic issues.”

New Jersey Family Lawyer newsletter is published by the NJSBA Family Law Section whose mission is to maintain and improve the practice of family law through effective interaction with the family courts and by informing members of current legislation and regulations according to the group’s web site. This is just one the subgroups within NJSBA which supports its more than 18,000 volunteer members by fostering professionalism, advancing personal development and encouraging participation.

Michelle Altieri concentrates her practice in divorce and family law and has focused in this area for more than fifteen years. Her client representation involves diverse issues, including divorce, child custody, spousal and child support, property settlement agreements, prenuptial agreements, domestic violence and adoption. She is experienced with all phases of divorce litigation and settlement negotiations, mediations and arbitrations. Ms. Altieri is a member of the Camden County Bar Association and the current co-chair of the Family Law Committee. She is also a member of the New Jersey State Bar Association and is a member of the Family Law Executive Committee. In addition, she is a Master in the Thomas S. Forkin Family Law Inns of Court and serves as the Programming Co-Chair. She is also a Matrimonial Early Settlement Panelist in Burlington and Gloucester counties.

Charny Karpousis Altieri & Donoian, P.A. is a boutique family law firm with highly regarded attorneys who provide assertive and efficient representation to clients in all types of family law matters. This includes divorce, custody, alimony, child support, college contribution and equitable distribution. The firm’s attorneys are also skilled in cases involving domestic violence, prenuptial agreements, property settlement agreements and adoptions.
