Charny Karpousis Altieri & Donoian, P.A. Senior Associate Erika Goldberg Sworn In As Court Appointed Special Advocate (CASA) for Children in Burlington County

May 29, 2018 – Marlton, NJ – Charny Karpousis Altieri & Donoian, P.A., a premier South Jersey law firm, announces Senior Associate Erika Goldberg has become a volunteer Court Appointed Special Advocate (CASA) for children in Burlington County, New Jersey. A strong proponent of children’s rights, Ms. Goldberg was sworn in on May 18, 2018 by retired judge John L. Call, Jr. In this court-appointed position, she will be an advocate for abused and neglected children, working to ensure their cases are not lost in the legal and social service systems. Ms. Goldberg will provide support for the well-being of these children until they are placed in a safe, permanent home.

According to the organization’s web site, the CASA for Children of Burlington County mission is to train and supervise community volunteers, appointed by the Family Court, to advocate for the best interests of children who have been removed from their homes due to abuse and/or neglect. Said Ms. Goldberg, “This is something I’ve wanted to do for so long. I can’t wait to get started and be able to make a difference in the lives of kids in our community.”

Ms. Goldberg has been practicing family law since 2008 and provides assertive representation for all types of clients, from less complicated divorce and family law cases to more complex divorce matters. Her family law practice focuses on all areas of divorce and family law, such as matters involving custody and child support, alimony, equitable distribution, college tuition funding, prenuptial agreements and domestic violence. She also represents the firm’s clients in the sale of their marital homes. Ms. Goldberg serves as a Matrimonial Early Settlement Panelist in Burlington and Gloucester Counties. She is also currently a member of the Camden County and Gloucester County Bar Associations, and is a Barrister in the Thomas S. Forkin Family Law Inns of Court.

Charny Karpousis Altieri & Donoian, P.A. is a boutique family law firm with highly regarded attorneys who provide assertive and efficient representation to clients in all types of family law matters. This includes divorce, custody, alimony, child support, college contribution and equitable distribution. The firm’s attorneys are also skilled in cases involving domestic violence, prenuptial agreements, property settlement agreements and adoptions. While the attorneys are seasoned litigators, the firm also offers Alternate Dispute Resolution alternatives such as mediation and arbitration. In addition to the legal services provided to clients, the firm is strongly committed to the community. All of the firm’s attorneys participate in the region’s professional associations, provide pro bono legal services to indigent clients and support local and statewide charitable organizations.
