

Charny Karpousis Altieri & Donoian Partner Nicole Donoian-Pody Named to Court Roster For Divorce Mediation Joining Previously Appointed Partner Karen Rose Karpousis and Of Counsel Nancy Gold

October 22, 2018 – Marlton, NJ – Charny Karpousis Altieri & Donoian, P.A. partner Nicole Donoian-Pody has been named to the New Jersey court roster as divorce mediators. She joins fellow firm partner Karen Rose Karpousis and of counsel Nancy D. Gold who have been on the roster as well as performing privately retained mediation for years. The attorneys on this court roster provide economic mediation after the Matrimonial Early Settlement Panel (MESP) process or post judgement. According to the New Jersey Courts, the program is designed to resolve economic issues, such as equitable distribution of marital property, college contribution, support and other economic issues. It provides the opportunity for parties to participate more actively in their case and move towards a mutually agreed upon settlement. Appointed family lawyers are required to complete 40 hours of mediation training, take continuing legal and mediation education, and provide the first two hours of a court appointed mediation on a pro bono basis. The confidential process is another way the courts attempt to help parties settle and avoid litigation.

Nicole Donoian-Pody has 17 years of experience in all aspects of family and matrimonial law, including alimony, child support, child custody, parenting time, grandparent's rights, division of assets and prenuptial agreements. A particular focus of her practice includes complex divorce matters involving unique issues, substantial marital estates and business valuations. In addition to being an active member of the Burlington and Camden County Bar Association Family Law Committees and affiliate with the New Jersey State Bar Association, Ms. Donoian-Pody just completed her 2014-2018 term on the District IV Fee Arbitration Committee. This is was her second term on the District IV Fee Arbitration Panel where she served as the Chairperson of her committee.

A family law attorney for over 40 years, Nancy D. Gold is experienced in handling complex financial and high conflict matrimonial matters, including those involving business interests, professional practices, extensive pre-marital or gifted assets and contested custody matters. In addition to representation at the trial level, Ms. Gold has also served as counsel for matters on appeal to the Appellate Division. Over the years, she has participated as a MESP and Blue Ribbon panelist. Ms. Gold has been an active member of the region's legal community throughout her career to include being a Master and founding member of the Thomas S. Forkin Family Law American Inns of Court. She has also served on the District IV Ethics Committee and District IV Fee Arbitration Committee of the Supreme Court of New Jersey along with the New Jersey State Bar Association Family Law Executive Committee.

Ms. Karpousis has specialized in the practice of Family Law since 1992. Over the years, she has earned a reputation for providing caring yet aggressive representation with a diverse clientele including small business owners, licensed professionals, W-2 wage earners and dependent spouses. Ms. Karpousis focuses on the resolution or litigation of divorce, custody issues, child support, alimony, equitable distribution, adoption, relocation and applications to the Court for protection from domestic violence and abuse. An active member of several professional and pro bono associations, Ms. Karpousis is a regular volunteer for programs and services that support the community as a whole.

Charny Karpousis Altieri & Donoian, P.A. is a boutique family law firm with highly regarded attorneys who provide assertive and efficient representation to clients in all types of family law matters. This includes divorce, custody, alimony, child support, college contribution and equitable distribution. The firm's attorneys are also skilled in cases involving domestic violence, prenuptial agreements, property settlement agreements and adoptions. While the attorneys are seasoned litigators, the firm also offers Alternate Dispute Resolution alternatives such as mediation and arbitration. In addition to the legal services provided to clients, the firm is strongly committed to the community. All of the firm's attorneys participate in the region's professional associations, provide pro bono legal services to indigent clients and support local and statewide charitable organizations. For more information, visit the firm's website at CharnyLaw.com or call (856) 574-4343.

###

PRESS CONTACT:

Glori Gayster
GDG Consulting, Inc.
609 560 6392 (cell)