KAREN ROSE KARPOUSIS AND FAMILY JOURNEY TO AFRICA AND A TRIP OF DISCOVERY

This past summer firm partner, Karen Rose Karpousis journeyed halfway around the world to South Africa with her husband, two children, sister and parents. From the walls of Victor Vester Prison outside of Cape Town and Penguin Colony near the Cape of Good Hope to Victoria Falls and Elephant Sanctuary in Zimbabwe, they spent days discovering a whole new world before heading into the wild ~ literally. Together, the group embarked on a four-day safari at Jock Lodge in Kruger National Park ~ exploring nature's habitat and coming within 10 feet of lions, leopards, rhinos, zebra, giraffe and hippos - just some of the world's animals that are more often seen in books and at zoos. Says Karpousis, "This was truly a trip of a lifetime!"
