Firm Holds Toy Drive to Support Collecting for a Cause

On the heels of riding the Ronald McDonald House of Southern New Jersey Polar Express for a 3rd straight year, Charny Karpousis Altieri & Donoian continued its efforts in bringing cheer to children and families with a toy drive. The firm partnered with Collecting for a Cause and collected new unwrapped toys, including games, arts & crafts, dolls, Legos and other like gifts for kids ages 2 to 15. In addition, winter clothing was also donated for those in need. By year end the box was overflowing. For information and how you can support Collecting for a Cause.

Karen Rose Karpousis and Erika L. Goldberg Continue Their Efforts with the Alice Paul Institute

This January, firm partner Karen Rose Karpousis and senior associate Erika L. Goldberg continued their support of the Alice Paul Institute and its mission for gender equality through education and leadership development. The "speed dating"-style program provided high school students the opportunity to sit one-on-one with mentors, asking questions about education background, career path and professional choices. It also allowed the young women to network with professionals exposing them to a variety of potential careers.
